あとがき

「Sodatechi Maou!」must be thanks to you.
Due to unspecified reasons, I started to take care of my nephew and based it off that experience, which is where the theme of child-raising is from.

From that day, for various reasons at my parent's house where my little sister and her child live, and because my work is close to my parent's home, I began to look after my nephew frequently (nothing serious).
Frankly, I have no interest in children, and even if that baby shook hands with the me ignoring him, right then at that moment, I was Death Mask.
That's the point, when I was near my nephew, before I noticed, he was cute and that's what I thought. I was surprised, yes.
This story's Death Mask, while he is at work, his mental state is that he wishes to be at home.
I'm perfect myself (lol).

In Japan, there is a low birth rate currently. I'm going to emphasize this.

Children are good. Superb. Amazing.

- If you read this work to a child, and you have an interest in child-rearing, I think that is a happy thing.
- Thank you very much for reading to the end.

See you in volume 2.
